Revd Charles writes:

Moving Mountains Mission is an exciting opportunity for us all – to think about our faith and to do something about it by sharing it!

We are all very British and don't like to hassle other people. We like to keep our emotions to ourselves. We like to keep ourselves to ourselves.

Yet we sing 'We have a gospel to proclaim'! We are told week by week 'Go in peace to love and serve the Lord'!

Loving, serving, proclaiming can be by word, deed and by our very 'essence' (who we are and how we are who we are). The Mission gives us that chance to put some of this into practice in a practical way.

Encouraging others to join us in the pub or walking into church to see some of the work on display. To be in church welcoming others. To be open to how the Spirit is moving in us and amongst us – moving God's purposes to completion. This is all part of the Mission. And we can all share in it. And have fun too!

Charles
